New Business

Kairos #18 Report. The most pressing needs for the upcoming retreat are: Doran needs to meet with Boyd Chikatulah, give him the Kairos #18 Inside volunteer list, give him the Sunday closing visitor list, and give him the schedule for the weekend. Steve recommended that all of this be done again as Jessie may not pass everything onto Boyd. Boyd is a good advocate of Kairos, but this meeting must take place right away. Steve also said that if ISCI says that we cannot have a Thursday afternoon meeting with the men in blue, we cannot have a weekend. KPMI's statement is there is no precedence for this, the weekend formula is ruined this way. Pastor John suggested sending a Thank You note to Jessie, which George accepted the task.

Upcoming Calendar Before the 18th, Courtney Rosenkoetter will go to Eagle UMC and count the inventory of items ready to go into ISCI for the weekend. On the 18th, at 8am at Amity UMC will be a make-up team training for those in need meeting the 34-36 hour requirement. On Thursday the 19th, there is a training for everyone at 8am to 2pm that should include the whole team. Thursday the team will meet at 3pm at the prison to start the 4 day weekend. The following Saturday the 28th, the team will meet at 7am at the prison. The next event will be the November monthly reunion on the 13th at 6pm. Doran needs to set next year's calendar for the mini-retreats (Jan/Feb, April/May, July) and the KI #19 weekend in October. Courtney Rosenkoetter has volunteered to lead the first mini-retreat in 2018 (Jan/Feb time frame). Steve Hamm said he will help him set it up, Pastor John offered to help advise as well.

Closing Activities
